MICHELLE V. AGINS/THE NEW YORK TIMES

THE MONTH IN CABARET This June is the rare month when men dominate New York cabaret. Alan Cumming, the chameleonic entertainer, Scottish Renaissance man and co-host of Sunday's Tony Awards, continues his sold-out engagement at Café Carlyle through June 13. He will be followed there, from June 16 through 27, by Tony Danza, a cheerful, charming vaudevillian who recently starred on Broadway in "Honeymoon in Vegas." Mr. Danza does a little bit of everything quite well. Both he and Mr. Cumming have never played the Café, which has enjoyed a booming season. Tuesdays through Saturdays at 8:45 p.m.; additional shows next Friday and Saturdays at 10:45 p.m.; 35 East 76th Street, Manhattan, 212-744-1600, thecarlyle.com. At Birdland, the magisterial jazz singer, note bender and rhythmic wizard Kurt Elling will appear in conjunction with his new album, "Passion World." Wednesday through June 13 at 8:30 and 11 p.m., 315 West 44th Street, Clinton, 212-581-3080, birdlandjazz.com. At 54 Below, a venue that has earned its sobriquet, Broadway's Supper Club, the pop-jazz chanteuse Ann Hampton Callaway is playing from June 18 through 20 and on June 25. And on June 22, the ingenuous heartthrob Jeremy Jordan, above, from "Smash" and "The Last Five Years," begins an engagement that continues through July 3. At 7 p.m., 254 West 54th Street, Manhattan, 646-476-3551, 54below.com. (Stephen Holden)
