

March 16, 2015

PICTURE OF THE DAY

Jazz and Books on the UES

Jazz singer Lani Hall and her husband/accompanist trumpeter Herb Alpert gave a rousing performance of jazz and pop standards March 10 during their opening night set at the Café Carlyle at The Carlyle hotel in New York City. Hall was also promoting the release of the audiobook version of her 2012 self-published book collection, 'Emotional Memoirs & Short Stories,' which features her fiction intertwined with true stories of her life.