Jersey Boys Tony winner John Lloyd Young will return to Café Carlyle from February 9-20 with a new concert titled Yours Truly.

Yours Truly will feature a set of romantic 1960s-era R&B ballads, with several new songwriting collaborations. A full band will be announced soon. It's Young's second show at the Carlyle, after his 2013 engagement in My Turn, where he performed selections from his debut album.

Young originated the role of Frankie Valli in Broadway's Jersey Boys, and later reprised his performance in Clint Eastwood's screen adaptation. Onstage, he has also appeared in Les Misérables at the Hollywood Bowl. His screen credits include TV's Glee and the film Oy Vey! My Son Is Gay!! Most recently, Young has performed his solo act around the country, up and down the California coast, and in a sold-out engagement at Washington, D.C.'s Kennedy Center.
