NIGHT LIFE

JAZZ AND STANDARDS

Judy Collins

Collins, who turned seventy-six on May 1st, looks and sounds terrific, and her judicious repertoire reminds us that she has been keen on expanding her stylistic palette since the late sixties. She helped introduce the world to the work of Joni Mitchell and Leonard Cohen, and remains enamored of Sondheim and Jimmy Webb. She displays her many musical sides—and shares tales from her storied past—when she takes the stage at the Café Carlyle. (Carlyle Hotel, Madison Ave. at 76th St. 212-744-1600. Through May 16.)
