

NEW YORK

February 24, 2014

CABARET

11. Hear Maude Maggart Modern-day flapper.

Café Carlyle, February 25 through March 1.

It's transporting when Maude Maggart sings—her plush, tremulous alto sounds beamed in from a 1920s gramophone. Her new show, “The Door Opened,” showcases her taste for the Great American Songbook (Irving Berlin, Dorothy Fields) in a rightly sophisticated setting.